

Information

Statutory Accident Insurance

General Information

The statutory accident insurance has the task:

- to prevent accidents at work and occupational diseases as well as work-related health risks
- to restore health and efficiency in case of work injury or occupational disease and
- to compensate the insured persons or their survivors with money benefits

Who is insured?

Every employee and trainee is covered by statutory occupational accident insurance.

Benefits

If an insured person has an accident at work or suffers from an occupational illness, statutory occupational accident insurance covers the resulting costs.

In the event of an occupational accident or illness, statutory occupational accident insurance provides:

- payment for full medical treatment,
- occupational integration assistance (for example, retraining),
- social integration assistance and supplementary assistance,
- money benefits to the insured and their surviving independents.

Contribution

The costs for comprehensive insurance coverage for prevention, rehabilitation and compensation are borne by employers.

More information

German Social Accident Insurance (DGUV) – central association

<http://www.dguv.de/en/>

Date: March 2019