Note on distribution:
This printed matter is published by the Senat of the Freie- und Hansestadt Hamburg as part of their public relations.
It may not be used by political parties and their aides during election campaigns for campaigning purposes. This applies to national, regional and local elections.
Especially the distribution at campaigning events at parties' information booths and the combination with party-political information or advertising material constitutes misuse.
The circulation to third parties for campaigning purposes is also prohibited.
It may not be used even outside election campaigns in any way that might suggest the federal state government took sides in favour of individual political groups.
These restrictions apply independent of when, how and in what numbers this publication has been received.
However, parties may use this publication to inform their own members
